Queensland Skilled Occupation List for Post Graduate Alumni

subclass 190

Effective 8 October 2015

Queensland
AUSTRALIA
endless opportunities

This list is for applicants that have completed a Masters Degree or PhD at a Queensland institution in Queensland in the last two years. Nomination is for a subclass 190 Skilled Nominated Visa which is a permanent residency points tested skilled migration visa for applicants nominated by a state or territory government.

To be eligible for Queensland nomination, applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

1. Australian Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP)
   - Eligibility criteria includes:
     i. Points test result of 60 or higher, inclusive of state nomination
     ii. Have a positive skills assessment in your nominated occupation from the relevant Australian assessing authority that is three months or greater from its expiry date and eligible for migration purposes.
     iii. Meet the minimum English language requirement of competent, unless a higher level of English language ability if required by your assessing authority
       - Note: applicants holding a passport for the United States, United Kingdom, Republic of Ireland, Canada or New Zealand are not required to sit an English language test unless required by the registration/licensing body or the applicant requires additional points to meet DIBP requirements.

AND

2. Business and Skilled Migration Queensland (BSMQ)
   - Completed 100% of your education at a Queensland institution in Queensland and graduated in the last two years;
   - Hold valid Queensland and Australian licenses, registrations or memberships for your nominated occupation that allow you to immediately work in Queensland in your nominated occupation;
   - Have sufficient funds to continue to support your life and dependents in Queensland long term; and
   - Demonstrate your commitment to long-term settlement in Queensland including living and working in Queensland for at least two years after your visa is granted.

AND

3. For Masters Degree Alumni:
   - Have an occupation on the Alumni QSOL; and
   - Evidence you have accepted an offer of employment in your skilled occupation or a closely related occupation as accepted by BSMQ. The job must be for at least one year and a minimum of 35 hours a week.

- Your job offer will be checked and if Business and Skilled Migration Queensland is concerned with the legitimacy of the offer, you will not receive nomination.

OR

4. For PhD Alumni:
   - Have a positive decision on your thesis; and
   - Have an occupation on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection's Consolidated Sponsored Occupation List.

How your application is processed:

- Applicants must apply for nomination by submitting an EOI through SkillSelect. Applicants choosing 'Queensland' as their nominating state will be considered before candidates selecting 'any state'.
- BSMQ will review the information included in your Expression of Interest to determine if you are eligible for Queensland nomination. All information, such as work experience, must be included in your EOI.
- If deemed eligible, you will be requested to complete an application form and provide written evidence of your job offer (if applicable), positive skills assessment, licensing or registration, settlement funds and a statement on your commitment to live in Queensland.
- When lodging your application form, you are also required to pay a non-refundable application fee.
- Requests for Queensland nomination for skilled visas are usually processed within two weeks, once your completed application has been received by BSMQ.
- Note that when applicants are requested to complete an application form and provide supplementary evidence to BSMQ, they will be given weeks to finalise their application. Applications not finalized within this timeframe will be closed and applicants will need to submit a new EOI if they wish to re-seek Queensland nomination.

Disclaimers

- QSOLs reflect labour demand and change regularly.
- Applying for nomination correctly does not guarantee you will be granted a nomination or a visa.
- Nomination is granted at the discretion of Business and Skilled Migration Queensland and once a decision has been made it is final. Business and Skilled Migration Queensland does not endorse any appeals to the Department of Immigration and Border Protection or the Migration Review Tribunal.
